CATECHISM LESSON (page 324 in Lutheran Service Book)

What is the Conclusion of the Lord’s Prayer?

Amen.

What does this mean?

This means that I should be certain that these petitions are pleasing to our Father in heaven, and are heard by Him; for He Himself has commanded us to pray in this way and has promised to hear us. Amen, amen means “yes, yes, it shall be so.”

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Book Club will meet June 27th at 5:30 pm. Please start reading through Bondage of the Will. An outline of our study is available at www.stjohnslutherans.com/book-club.
- Receipts from Lynn's in Greybull if you shop at Lynn's, please bring your receipts to Pastor Benson. For every $10,000 of purchases, the LWML at Grace will receive $100.
- Mission funds will be sent to The Rev. Jonah Dominichelli, missionary in Germany. If you'd like to give extra to Pastor Dominichelli's mission, please indicate so on your offering envelope.

If you plan on using your bulletin for devotional use please take it home with you. If you just plan on throwing it away, please leave it so Pastor Benson can dispose of the Word of God and the holy Images with reverence.

DAILY PRAYER & READINGS

The head of the household can use this guide to lead in-home devotions.

O Lord, Open * My Lips

R And my mouth will declare Your praise.

Make Haste, + O God, to deliver me.

R Make Haste to help me, O Lord.

C Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.
